Age Concern South Canterbury Privacy Policy

Age Concern South Canterbury is the operating name for Timaru Senior Citizens Association a Registered Charity
(Charities Registration No: CC35518)

DONOR CONFIDENTIALITY

Age Concern South Canterbury is committed to protecting your privacy. Any personal information provided to us will not be used other than as described in this privacy policy. We recognise that your relationship with us is voluntary, and your privacy will be held in the strictest confidence.

We adhere to the following guidelines:

- Information about donations is handled with respect and confidentiality to the extent provided by law.
- We will respect the wishes of contributors who prefer their gift to remain confidential.
- We do not lend, exchange, rent or sell our donor lists to other organisations.
- The personal information you provide when becoming a member, making a donation or registering for an event will be protected by Age Concern South Canterbury and will not be disclosed to any third parties.

WHAT INFORMATION WE COLLECT

Age Concern South Canterbury collects and uses varied personal information from members, donors and attendees including: name, address, telephone numbers, e-mail address, donor comments, date of birth and amount donated.

HOW WE USE THAT INFORMATION

Age Concern South Canterbury uses contact information (e-mail, telephone number and address) of members and donors for these purposes only:

- Inform supporters about upcoming fundraising, events and other activities of Age Concern South Canterbury
- Provide receipts for donations.
- Thank donors for their donation.
- Internal analysis and record keeping

We allow donors the option to have their name publicly associated with their donation unless the donor explicitly chooses to be anonymous. In all other cases the default is for staff and volunteers to assume all donations are not to be publicly announced unless the donor explicitly indicates otherwise. Comments given in donor forms may be used in promotional materials while comments sent to us via email, fax or telephone are kept strictly confidential.

Access and Correction of Information

You have the right to access and request a correction to your personal information. To ensure that your recorded personal information is accurate and up-to-date, please notify us of any changes to your personal details as soon as possible through the contact methods specified below.

FINANCIAL INFORMATION

All access to donor financial information is limited to professional staff who need to process this data. Age Concern South Canterbury only uses online payment processing services with world class security and strong reputations. Age Concern South Canterbury does not store, nor does it have access to, your credit card information, bank account numbers, or other account data sent to those processing services.

DONOR BILL OF RIGHTS

Age Concern South Canterbury subscribes to the Donor Bill of Rights.

Philanthropy is based on voluntary action for the common good. It is a tradition of giving and sharing that is primary to the quality of life. To assure that philanthropy merits the respect and trust of the general public, and that donors and prospective donors can have full confidence in the not-for-profit organisations and causes they are asked to support, we declare that all donors have these rights:

- To be informed of the organisation's mission, of the way the organisation intends to use donated resources, and of its capacity to use donations effectively for their intended purposes.
- To be informed of the identity of those serving on the organisation's governing board, and to expect the board to exercise prudent judgment in its stewardship responsibilities.
- To have access to the organisation's most recent financial statements.
- To be assured their gifts will be used for the purposes for which they were given.
- To receive appropriate acknowledgment and recognition.
- To be assured that information about their donations is handled with respect and with confidentiality to the extent provided by law.
- To expect that all relationships with individuals representing organisations of interest to the donor will be professional in nature.
- To be informed whether those seeking donations are volunteers, employees of the organisation or hired solicitors.
- To have the opportunity for their names to be deleted from mailing lists that an organisation may intend to share.
- To feel free to ask questions when making a donation and to receive prompt, truthful and forthright answers.

NOTIFICATION OF CHANGES

If we decide to change our privacy policy, we will post those changes on our website so you are always aware of what information we collect, how we use it, and under what circumstances, if any, we disclose it. If at any point we decide to use personally identifiable information in a manner different from that stated at the time it was collected, we will notify you by way of an email. You will have a choice as to whether or not we may use their information in this different manner. We will use information in accordance with the privacy policy under which the information was collected.

NOTIFICATION OF CHANGES

If you have questions about this Privacy Policy or if you wish to be removed from our email/postal contact lists, then please email manager@ageconcernsc.org.nz, or call 03 687 7581, or write to:
